

Word Finding Difficulties: Tips and Strategies (Aphasia friendly)

Speech and Language Therapy Department

Patient information leaflet

Word finding difficulties can be very frustrating.

The following tips will help you get your message across

- Give yourself plenty of time – DON'T RUSH

- DESCRIBE the word

- Think of a DIFFERENT WORD or an OPPOSITE

Try TOTAL COMMUNICATION

- Write it down

- Draw a picture

- Use gesture or point to something

How can family and friends help?

- Be PATIENT and give them time to speak
- ENCOURAGE them to think around the word, or think of another word that means the same
- GESTURE or POINT to objects that you think they might be trying to say
- CHECK YOU HAVE UNDERSTOOD the message correctly
- BE HONEST if you don't understand what they're trying to communicate
- BE AWARE that word finding difficulties can be extremely frustrating for both them and for you – try to show them that you understand their difficulties.
